

Get the Most from Your SQF Commitment

Alchemy Can Help You Achieve & Sustain Your SQF Certification

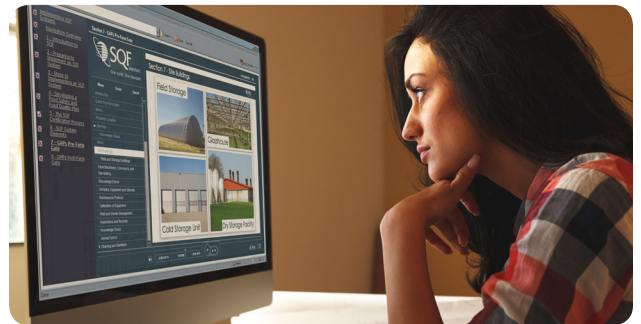

Are you ready for SQF Edition 8? Alchemy can help you meet — and maintain — SQF certification with official SQF online courses, expert consulting services, and SQF-related food safety training for your frontline workforce.

Official SQF Practitioner Courses & Quality Exam

Implementing SQF Course & Exam:

Success hinges on a thorough understanding of the SQF code. This online course is designed by SQFI's experts on how to implement and sustain the SQF code. Ideal for consultants, suppliers, and practitioners, it is the quickest, most convenient and economical route to certification.

SQF Quality Course:

The SQF Institute has changed its certification requirements. There are now separate certifications for Food Safety and Quality. This means suppliers currently certified at SQF Level 3 will also need to be certified in the SQF Quality code beginning January 2018. This online course is developed by SQFI's experts, covers the new quality code, and explains how to successfully implement a Food Quality Plan using a variety of quality tools.

SQF Training for Frontline Workers

Alchemy has SQF courses geared specifically toward food workers in order to empower them with the knowledge and confidence to make smart decisions on the floor.

Our successful learning programs cover a range of SQF-required topics including:

- Cleaning & Sanitizing
- Controlling Salmonella
- Food Allergens
- Environmental Monitoring
- Food Fraud
- Food Safety Standards & SQF
- HACCP
- Visitor Procedures
- GMPs & Personal Hygiene
- Food Facility Defense
- Pest Control

SQF On-the-floor Observations, Coaching, & Communications

Alchemy's mobile Coach app is the must-have tool to meet SQF Edition 8's increased requirements for management commitment.

Use Alchemy Coach on the plant floor to monitor and correct worker behavior in real time. For convenience and peace of mind, tracking data and important records are stored in a central location, always available for auditors to review.

Additionally, Coach features SQF-specific observation tasks designed to help supervisors prep frontline workers for conversations with SQF auditors.

To further reinforce important concepts, Alchemy offers coordinated continuous learning materials like high-impact posters, huddle guides, and digital signage designed to keep food safety top-of-mind from the classroom to the floor.

Create Plant-Specific SQF Training with Alchemy Creator

Alchemy's Creator software enables you to easily edit Alchemy's courseware to reflect your company's specific SQF 8 conditions and requirements. You can also create your own courses with customized video, photos, audio, and graphics. Use knowledge-check questions and an interactive "game show" to fully engage learners and verify comprehension. Combining Alchemy's training solutions with your plant's specific messaging ensures workers have the knowledge they need to meet SQF requirements.

Expert SQF Consulting Services

Alchemy's expert food industry consultants have decades of on-the-floor food safety and operations experience. They have helped hundreds of companies meet and sustain SQF standards. They also help currently certified SQF practitioners transition to SQF 8, with additional emphasis on food fraud, supplier verification, and environmental monitoring programs. Find out what they can do for your company's most pressing SQF-related needs.
